

Inkrejulus / The Invisible Man

Innocence wanted
No price to pay
Everybody's got to hide except me

No heartbeat, no love and no feeling
No heartbeat, no sight and no meaning
No heartbeat, to live start breathing

Until I stumble from you

Light the fire inside
Awake your fairground eyes
Everybody's got to hide except me and my blind monkey

I juggle with my madness
Like dreams of tyrants
Spin them all around
Bought my love new china

She's incredulous
She's ridiculous
We are marvellous

The precious minutes where everything happens

She's incredulous
She's ridiculous
We are marvellous

The precious minutes where everything happens

Everybody's got to hide
Everybody's got to hide
Everybody's got to hide
Everybody's got to hide

Light the fire inside
Awake your fairground eyes
Everybody's got to hide except me and my blind monkey

I juggle with my madness
I juggle with my madness
I juggle with my madness
I juggle with my madness

She's incredulous - She's ridiculous - We are marvellous - The precious minutes where everything happens.....
